

RAMBHADRA DAS

TEMPLE PRESIDENT
(ISKCON GURUGRAM)

LIFE COACH | MEDITATION COACH | BHAKTI YOGA TEACHER

Ram Bhadra Das is Temple President of ISKCON Gurugram. He is responsible for training, educating and constantly inspiring his team of about 150 group leaders in sharing the teachings and practice of Bhakti Yoga. These leaders consist of Business Leaders, Entrepreneurs, CAs, Scientists, IIT Professors, PhD Students, Social Media Experts, Artists, Social Workers, Educationists, Data Scientists and Univ Students.

Through them he has been very instrumental in sharing Bhakti Yoga teachings even amidst the lockdown through innovative online educational initiatives for Women, Teenagers, Married Couples, Unmarried Youngsters. These programs were based on ancient wisdom books such as Bhagvad Gita and were backed with recent scientific studies conducted globally. In association with MCG Joint Commissioner he inspired and supervised his team in the distribution of 5 Lakh free meals during Covid-19 Pandemic. Carrying forward his services for Society he again during the second wave of Corona. Under his leadership he initiated Covid food Aid program in which the Covid affected people received meals at their doorstep and they served more than 2 Lac door to door meals. For these initiatives he received a Certificate of commitment from World Book of records London.

He joined ISKCON as a monk and life coach in year 2006. He is currently Deputy-Director of ISKCON Youth Forum, Delhi. He holds following educational degrees, awarded by ISKCON: Bhakti Shastri, Teachers Training Courses 1 & 2, and Leadership-Management Course.

Prior to joining ISKCON, he worked for few years at MNC's. He holds a B Tech in Information Technology from Chandigarh.

